

Marie Cook, Teacher Dies Suddenly

STRICKEN ON TRIP IN THE SOUTH

The many friends of Catherine Marie Cook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cook, 523 South Second avenue, Alpena, Mich., were shocked Sunday to learn of her death which occurred in a hospital at Wilmington, North Carolina.

Details concerning her sudden illness and death are meager only the fact being known that death was due to septemia. She is believed to have taken ill Friday or Saturday as she mailed a postcard on Thursday to her parents which arrived here Saturday and apparently at that time was in good health.

When word was received Saturday by her family of her critical condition her brother, Dr. John Cook, of Grayling, immediately left for Wilmington. It is believed he reached her before she died at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

Miss Cook, together with a friend, Miss Ina Conboy, of Cheboygan, left in July on a month's trip which included a visit with Miss Conboy's aunt, Mrs. Meyers, at Wilmington. The two girls planned to leave this week to return to their homes.

The body of Miss Cook is expected to arrive in Alpena Tuesday afternoon, in which event funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at the home. Interment will be in the West cemetery at Harrisville.

Miss Cook was born in Alcona county, October 3, 1911, and had been a resident of Alpena since 1928. She graduated from Alpena high school in 1929 and then entered Alma College, graduating with honors from the college in 1933, since which time she had been on the teaching staff of the public schools at Grayling. Miss Cook was to have taught this coming year at the Lockwood school, Alpena.

Miss Cook was a member of the Alpena Girls' League and although not a resident of Alpena since graduating from college she was keenly interested in the affairs of the city. She was a popular member of her high school and college classes and news of her sudden and untimely death brings genuine grief to her host of friends.

Surviving Miss Cook are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Cook; and two brothers, Dr. John F. Cook, Grayling; and Hugh Cook, at home—Alpena News.

It is with sincere regret that the news of the passing of Miss Cook was received by Grayling people. She was not returning to Grayling to teach next year, and this alone was regretted very much as she had proven herself a very able instructor and had endeared herself to her pupils and parents as well. When Miss Cook first came to Grayling two years ago as teacher of the first grade she at once became a favorite with all whom she came in contact. Her brother Dr. Cook and other members of the family have the sincere sympathy of Grayling people in their sorrow.

Roof repairing satisfactorily done, service guaranteed. Charles McCready, Grayling.

CHIEF OF CHAPLAINS VISITS CAMP HIGGINS

Colonel Alva Brasted, Chief of Chaplains of the United States Army and of the Civilian Conservation Corps was guest of honor at a fine dinner given at Camp Higgins Lake Monday. Colonel Brasted is a short man in stature but a giant in intellect. He gave a most inspiring address to those present who represented both the camps of the immediate vicinity and the community. After the singing of "America" Mrs. Hurley, wife of the educational adviser of the camp, led a harmonica band in excellent selections. Lt. James Hartley, camp mess officer, with his crew of superior cooks and helpers, spread a fine chicken dinner before the 35 guests, including a number of ladies.

Captain Niles Bryant of Camp AuSable gave a very fine talk on "The Chaplain" and Camp Morale." He showed conclusively that the work of the chaplain was most essential to the upbuilding of moral stamina and proper disciplinary action among the enrollees.

Dr. C. G. Clippert spoke effectively on "The Chaplain and Community Spirit." He presented facts to show that the kindness, co-operative effort and proper patriotic understanding of the community often-times depends entirely on the chaplain and that this was getting proper attention at the present time.

Captain George Murphy, commanding officer of Camp Higgins Lake, welcomed the visitors and called upon Captain Edwin Todd, Camp Custer area chaplain, to introduce the Honorable Alva Brasted. The latter gave a most inspiring talk on the value of efficient leadership and the necessity of developing character among the boys of the camps. "Good government, future advance in all the worthy ventures of American interest, and true patriotism depend upon the proper building of character in the youth," he stated.

Rev. Father Moloney offered the benediction of grace before the meal and Rev. Edgar Flory pronounced benediction at the close of the meeting.

Chaplain J. Lawrence Connolly of the local camps had charge of the program for the occasion.

MR. AND MRS. H. W. WOLFF SUPPER HOSTS

An ideal place for entertaining friends at an informal supper party is the Wolff farm, with the river winding through the grounds crossed by rustic bridges which lead to as beautiful trails as can be found anywhere.

A gay party of some fifty friends gathered at the farm Saturday evening to meet guests of the Wolffs: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Graham, of Pittsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn White and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Richeson, Cleveland.

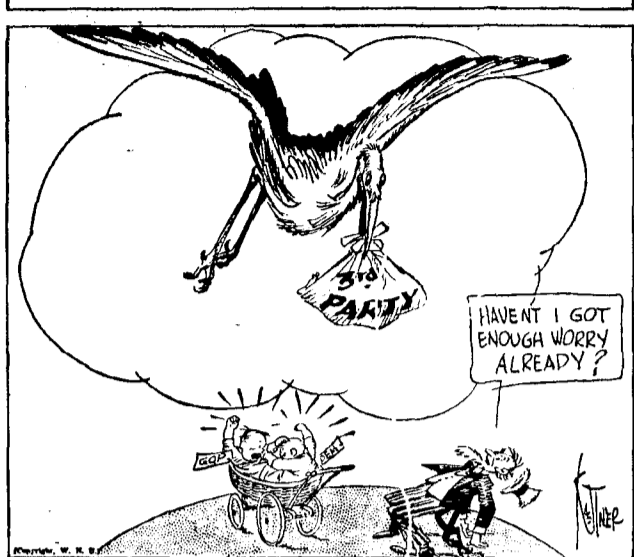

Following the supper, the party sort of turned into a song fest with all the old time melodies winning in the popularity over modern jazz.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolff are delightful hosts and this affair was just another of the many successful occasions given at the farm.

Live Bait Most Successful For Pike Lure, Scribe Finds

MINNOWS BAG THEM IN LAKE MARGRETHE NEAR GRAYLING

(By Jimmy Donahue)

Grayling—Maybe it was old like Walton who remarked, "When in Rome, do as the Romans do." Anyway, four ardent Waltonians who made up our party, bent on invading the fastnesses which abound north and west of this former lumbering town found out that when natives suggest dunking minnows in deep lakes for small mouth and great northern pike, minnows it is.

Four painful days of casting and trolling a varied assortment of lures, from surface plugs to June bug spinners and minnows, thoroughly convinced us that Doc R. A. VanVleck, a former Ohio medico who has gone native and is conducting a camp on the shores of Lake Margrethe, four miles from here, knew that of which he spoke.

"I'm telling you right now," he said, when we reported with Ben Wright, a red-haired Bay City renegade who knows everything there is to know about Michigan fishing, "that you'll have more luck soaking minnows in this big lake than you will have casting."

So we know-it-alls, holding up hands in horror at the thought of anything but purist tactics, proceeded to whip miles of the cold, deep lake into a froth with artificial lures, winding up with only one bass, a four-pound three-eight-ounce lunker, to show for it.

So We Turn Dunkers
Finally, in desperation, we capitulated. With minnows in the bucket, and fly rods set up, we outboarded to the edge of one of the numerous weed beds that dot the lake, anchored over the edge as Doc VanVleck had instructed, and drifted with the wind out into about 25 feet of water.

It wasn't 10 minutes until small mouth began to feed. Before you could get one line up, another man in the boat would be fast to a battler, which, finding himself hooked, shot directly toward the sky and, more often than not, succeeded in shaking off the hook.

Six bass, all over two pounds, came to net before the morning was over, as did two great northern pike, one eight and a half pounds. In connection with the latter there is quite a yarn.

The pike was hooked in 25 feet of water by Carl Maier, NEA artist, who was fishing with a hollow steel fly rod. Scarcely had the minnow been lowered when the fish hit and, from the antics of the rod, you could tell that it was a pike.

Back and forth the fish went, beneath the boat and out. After 10 minutes he came to the top, thrashed around for a while, and quietly was led to the net.

Snapped on a stringer, he remained quiet for a time, then, with strength partly returned, he cut up quite a ruckus. Little attention was paid to him until, all at once, it was noticed he had broken the snap to which he was attached and was floating belly up, and, thoroughly exhausted, five feet from the boat.

After much maneuvering, we finally succeeded in netting the fish again.

Fish Prove Fickleness
Outside of the lesson we learned, of using live bait in hot weather, and sinking it in deep water, the section in which we fished brought its varieties of fishing.

Located seven miles from here is the great Manistee river, and running right through the town is the world-famed AuSable. The main lesson picked up in these two streams was that no matter what fly you use, the trout usually are hitting something else. One day, we took a 35-mile trip down the AuSable, fishing with tiny dry flies tied on Nos. 16 and 18 hooks.

Several trout were hooked, three keepers, until we hit a hunderstorm and pulled out at Lincoln Lodge. There we saw two fishermen disembark from a pair of those peculiar river boats with a mess of trout that would drive a man to drink. In their creels were 30 trout, one hitting the scales at three and one-half pounds, and all were caught with artificial grasshoppers.

Next day, after buying all the hoppers in town, we waded a stretch of the stream for three hours, casting hoppers until it looked as if all those insects in Michigan had fallen into the AuSable.

Three more trout reposed in our creels when we climbed out at Stephens Bridge, to find another angler with bulging creel who had caught all his trout on a No. 16 spent wing Royal Coachman.

So it all boils down to, "When in Rome, do as the Romans do."

MISS MARGRETHE HEMMINGSEN WRITES FROM SWEDEN

The following interesting letter was received by Miss Ingeborg Hanson from Miss Margrethe Hemmingsen, the latter who is enjoying her European trip evidently very much:

Stockholm, Sweden

Dear Ingeborg:

Well, here we are, Robert and I. We left Mrs. Boeson in Aalborg after attending the Fourth of July celebration. We were there the 4th, 5th and 6th. Mrs. Boeson went to Aarhus. We went by rail to Frederikshavn and then by boat to Gothenberg, Sweden, then by rail to Oslo, Norway. Spent 1 1/2 days there. Then by rail across Norway and Sweden to Stockholm. We have been on two bus sightseeing trips and tomorrow we are going on a boat trip. This morning we went to an English church—Episcopalian. We decided to stay at the hotel and write some letters this evening. The days are long here; we have had wonderful weather all the time. The natives both here and in Denmark seemed to think that it was awfully hot.

We are going back to Denmark by way of the "Gotto Canal" one of the favorite trips of all tourists.

We have seen many beautiful sights. Nature here is wonderful, and the people seem to appreciate it much more than we do in America. It seems to me that the outlay of Denmark is much as it is around Grayling, but every inch of ground is utilized. I can't describe to you the abundance of roses. Roses, roses everywhere. In Norway, not so much landscaping. There nature itself reigns. Rocks upon rocks and large tracts of timber. The fjords are full of log rafts. That, as well as Sweden is a sawmill country. The lumber yards we used to have in Grayling are babies compared to these. The trees don't seem to be so large but very tall. This, they say, is due to the rocky substance upon which they grow.

Sweden is rich in natural resources. We went thru the City Hall yesterday. It was built in 1924 and is very beautiful. Swedish materials were used as much as possible—Swedish birch, oak, marble, both black and gray granite. The floor in the ballroom is of black mosaic marble; the pillars in one of the halls are of black granite. Today we visited an old palace and the old King's Theatre. This is no more in use except upon visits of the nobility or if an international meeting of some kind is held.

Haven't said anything about Denmark, but I'll tell you about it when I get home. Nothing antiquated about Copenhagen; they certainly are up to date in every way. When there, I can hardly believe I am so far from home.

Robert and I are beginning to count the days till we are homeward bound, just as we did before we left America.

Maggie.

The Annual Oaks Family Reunion

The Oaks Family reunion banner displayed at Connine's Grove Saturday, August 8, heralded the 15th annual meeting of the family, a most enjoyable gathering to all the members and their guests. The entertainment committee, strictly on the job, had an interesting contest under way while the folks were arriving and getting ready for dinner. Dinner was some important affair too, helped immensely with a real fish fry, contributed by the Grayling members.

After dinner came the business meeting. This was conducted by Henry Oaks, president, and Floyd Oaks, secretary. Interesting letters were read from Mrs. H. P. Mortenson, 74 years, of Hutchinson, Minn.; Mrs. Clarissa Hesselroth, Pollock, S. D.; and Ella G. Marshall, Spearfish, S. D. It was wished they could have been here.

As the next reunion is to be in Flint, the new officers were chosen from residents of that vicinity as follows: Hugh Oaks, president; Arthur St. Dennis, vice president; Oscar Deckrow, secretary; Claud Oaks, Edith Oaks and Mable Sparkes, entertainment committee.

Clyde Oaks won the first contest, counting the quills of a porcupine. Donald West won the boys potato race. Robert West first, and Marx Stephan second, outran the ten to twelve year boys. Little Helen Stephan first and Marion West second, were proud of their prizes for running a tiny tot race. Virginia Hicks first, Margie Deckrow second, led the young ladies under twelve, as did Zina Stephan and Lavina Deckrow, the next group. And then came the ladies, and how they did run. One could hardly believe it after the dinner they had eaten. Eureka Stephan and Ruth St. Dennis captured the prizes by inches only. Henry Oaks has won the men's race several times and held his record this time followed by Edgar Auten.

When Uncle Hugh distributed balloons and squawkers, the merry-makers hesitated to think what the other campers must have thought. And then the committee sprang another surprise—ice cream for everyone.

The three oldest members were photographed together and all wanted a photograph of them. They were Mrs. Melissa Penoyer, Frank R. Deckrow and Giles Oaks. Aunt Melissa was given a prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Oaks and family should have come from Flint but they came trailing in on Friday from Lake City. With

RIALTO THEATRE

Grayling, Michigan

SUNDAY and MONDAY
August 16 and 17

Sunday Show continuous from 3 P. M. to Closing.

Public Opinion

The much heralded Happyland carnival has come and gone and as carnivals go, this one went—taking along plenty of shekels. We imagine Grayling's business thermometer will show a drop.

But we are not concerned nearly so much about the money as we are about certain other aspects of the gala spectacle. We 100% Americans resented the illegal presence of gambling devices open to adult operation only, but our ire was aroused when we saw children, putting nickels into machines, and innocently hoping to win other nickels. They did not realize that these machines are made to take, not to give. What is that saying about taking candy from babies?

During the carnival we protested to officers of the American Drum & Bugle Corps against at least one of the side shows. We have been around this globe enough to recognize an affront to common decency when we see it.

We sincerely regret that that one side show should have been foisted upon our community. That type of show is injurious to character. It thwarts the efforts of home and school and church

In an address at Camp Higgins this week, Colonel Braisted, Chief of Chaplains of the U. S. Army and C.C.C. Camps, told us that character-building was the great task of education and religion. Good citizens must oppose anything that destroys character.

We are heartily in favor of good, wholesome amusement. We have no criticism to make of the Merry-Go-Round, the Ferris Wheel, the Whip and kindred features of the carnival. We are informed that in order to get these, the objectionable features had to be accepted. Would we buy apples from a merchant who compelled us to take two rotten apples with every good one?

We hope that in the future no organization will try to bring to Grayling any undesirable carnival, show, or entertainment. Would it be too much for our citizenry to ask the City Council for an ordinance prohibiting such exhibitions?

Edgar Flory.

"GRAYLING is Center of Vacationland" was the caption above a four-column picture in last week's edition of the Avalanche. Below the picture was quite a resume of the vacation activities to be found here. This picture and article was prepared by the East Michigan Tourist association, a list for which was sent to every newspaper in Michigan. Not all the newspapers used the picture and copy but they were published very extensively throughout the state. We wonder if our home people realize what extent of favorable publicity this community got out of that feature. Other cities too have been similarly publicized by the E.M.T. news service. This is one of the ways that the E.M.T. has for using the money that is received by them from association members. This organization has a way of keeping track of the activities of Eastern Michigan and letting the public know thru the newspapers of the state. Western Michigan too is giving its subscribers a lot of service with the money they take in. We've got to take our hats off to Tom Marston and Ben Wright for the big way they are putting Eastern Michigan over with the public.

Kiwanis Minstrel Was Big Success

Wednesday evening at the school auditorium a packed house greeted with keen anticipation the opening number of the Kiwanis Minstrel show.

Three end men, A. Wright, Frank Sales and Bill Heric stepped before the curtain to open the show with "Bring Back Minstrel Days," "St. Louis Blues," joining the chorus, as the curtain rose, in "Are You From Dixie" with the entrance of six girl dancers: Mary Jane Joseph, Ruth Burrows, Pat McKenna, Gloria McNeven, Nell Welsh and Jane Milnes.

The chorus was made up of six end men: O. P. Schumann, Howard Schmidt, Holger Peterson, R. A. Wright, Frank Sales and Bill Heric plus Liand Smock and Henry Smith III, guitar players, and Chas. Moore, Edward Brigham, Lawrence Hunter, Don Gothro, Ken Gothro, Nels Olson, Dr. C. R. Clippert, and the interlocutor, Edward Robinson.

"Lonesome Road" with Edward Brigham and chorus was very good. Edward has a deep rich base voice, very suited to this type of song. "Mandy," sung by Bill Heric and Frank Sales with little Betty Underwood coming in with a tap dance was well received.

Roberta Redhead and Patsy Hope Heric made an adorable picture as they danced in perfect unison for the next feature.

A jockey chorus, made up of five girls, riding horses, and staging a Kentucky derby was quite unique. Bob Welsh with his steed joined the race and won the derby.

Jane Milnes gave a very good portrayal of a dancing mechanical doll.

"Deep River" by the chorus was next on the program. Roberta Redhead's solo dance brought a big hand by the audience.

Dainty little Emily Giegling followed and received the same appreciation from the crowd.

"Rockabye Baby Blues" with the chorus and featuring Wright and Schmidt brought down the house. Schmidt was a colored gal in love with Wright and the nigger baby duologue was cleverly taken off. The chorus swayed the rockabye with nigger dolls that were thrown over to the audience as the singing ended. Intermission of 5 minutes followed.

For the opening number of the second half of the program Nell and Bob Welsh gave a double feature dance on a small platform with stairs on each side that brought a round of applause. The dance was very well done.

Marv Jane Joseph and Ruth Burrows gave an off-rhythm dance that is difficult but very pretty and showed their dancing ability.

Billy Ann Clippert clicked with the music on every beat as she gave her pretty solo dance.

For the next solo dance Mr. Robinson ushered in tiny Sue Giegling who simply took the house by storm with her nonchalance as her tiny feet pattered out her cute little dance. Sue's black satin tights and black high hat made a picture that was worth the price of the show.

As the chorus sang "Is it true what they say about Dixie," and "Mighty Lak a Rose" several little pickaninies danced in and were then running in their dance. Betty Hewitt finished this feature with a solo dance that was just too cute for words. The pickaninies were Patsy Heric, Roberta Redhead, Betty Underwood, Billy Ann Clippert,

Emily Giegling, Gwen Ahman, Betty Hewitt.

The solo by Henry Smith III of Bay City with his guitar accompaniment was one of the very good numbers on the program.

"Old Man River" sung by Edward Brigham, accompanied by Mrs. C. G. Clippert was very fine and received a worthy applause.

Burton Peterson as Joe Louis gave a very clever dance together with the motions of a prize fight and ended up with being knocked out.

For the finale, the chorus sang "Alabama Bound" with several girls, ranging from the oldest girls down to the little tots, dressed like colored mamies, coming in dancing and singing.

Between the numbers on the program special dances were given by Traverse City girls. Miss Gwenivere Royce staged a very clever acrobatic number. And the Misses Jean Willmantel and Betty Williams gave a double acrobatic number that was very good. Also Miss Jean gave an impersonation of Roy Atwell and toe dance.

The usual jokes between the interlocutor and the end men were gotten off and well received.

Edward Robinson and sister Miss Kittle, of Traverse City, together with Mrs. C. G. Clippert, were responsible for the success of the show. Miss Robinson accompanied on the piano throughout the program.

The minstrel was given under the auspices of the Kiwanis club for the benefit of the Boy Scouts and a fine sum was raised for this splendid organization.

This loose talk about RED CROWN is started by pixilated people

Mrs. Popyew's Epigram

"STANDARD Red Crown gives 150 miles a gallon and not a fraction more!" continued Mrs. Popyew, affectionately called "Pixie" by her host of friends in Tall Story circles.

She added: "To stop this loose talk I put my foot down. Unfortunately, it was on the accelerator and the car leaped clear into the next precinct. Red Crown is responsive."

We have more than a faint suspicion that "Pixie" is indulging in slightly "loose talk" herself. Standard Red Crown does give as long mileage as any gasoline—possibly more—but definitely not 150 miles per gallon!

As a matter of fact, hundreds of thousands of motorists are now learning, first hand, the bedrock truth about gasoline mileage in the World's Greatest Road Test, and even though you may not be driving one of the Research Test Cars, it will pay you to . . .

APPRECIATION

The Grayling American Legion Drum & Bugle Corps wishes to extend to the people of Grayling and vicinity its appreciation for the support received during the time the Happyland Carnival was in our city. The carnival came here with recommendations as to cleanliness and orderliness from a great many other Michigan cities. We found the management of the carnival to be courteous and at all times desirous of pleasing those who patronized the various amusements.

The show itself was free from all those objectionable things which feature so many carnivals. We appreciate the many compliments received on the appearance and splendid condition of the equipment and concessions carried by the carnival.

The Happyland Shows is a Michigan corporation and travels exclusively in Michigan. They have showed in all the large cities of Michigan and many of the smaller ones. Their records show that they play the same communities year after year and they have letters from organizations and public officials throughout the state praising their organization for the manner in which their carnival is conducted.

We are thankful for the opportunity of bringing them to Grayling.

Flash! Mr. and Mrs. McClanahan flew up to their cabin last week end from Mt. Pleasant. Now that we've run out of flashes we have about the tallest story about a fish ever told. It was sent to us by Mr. Dudd of Vanderbil. It seems that Mr. Dudd wanted to know the temperature of the water one cold winter day, so he tied a string on a thermometer and lowered it into the water where he had made a hole in the ice. When he pulled the thermometer out there was a ten-inch rainbow on the end. His explanation was that the trout had mistaken the thermometer for a lure.

YESTERDAY — TODAY AND TOMORROW

ALWAYS THE SAME GOOD BEER

"DEW AND SUNSHINE"

Although Frank Murphy, High Commissioner to the Philippines, and former Mayor of Detroit, is highly regarded in New Deal circles at Washington and in Manila, as an Administrator and statesman, he has demonstrated already that when it comes to Michigan affairs he is still the provincial Detroitier he was when he made the phrase "dew and sunshine" famous in 1930 and 1931.

In what was almost his first public admission that he would probably run for the Governorship of this State, Commissioner Murphy launched out into a plea for a onehouse Legislature.

Michigan's Legislature today, with its two houses, represents a fairly even balance between representation by population and representation by area, just as the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives maintain the same sort of balance. The Murphy proposal is simply another way of attempting to obtain Wayne County domination at Lansing. With the memory of Elmer O'Hara, Tony Wilkowski, Ed Barnard and John Gillespie still fresh in their memories, that kind of control is not wanted by better citizens of Detroit, itself, and would be resisted in every legitimate way by every city, village and township in the other 82 counties.

It is our guess that Commissioner Murphy has here created an issue that will prove the ultimate cause of his defeat.—Roscommon Herald News.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 13, 1936

Oscar Goss and family are spending a couple of weeks with the Peter Lovely family at their cottage at the lake.

Old Age assistance has been granted to the following of Crawford County: Mrs. Jensine Rasmussen and James Perry, Grayling; Albert Atwood, South Branch.

Norman Dawson has purchased the home of Holger A. Hanson, located on Chestnut Street.

The Dr. Clippert residence is looking very nice with a fresh coat of paint.

Chester Lozon of Maple Forest is driving a new Ford Pick-Up purchased recently from the Burke Garage. They also report the sale of a Touring Ford to Dr. H. M. Harrington, of Gaylord.

There is a tag sale being held today for the Sunnycrest School for Girls located at Holland, Mich. The institution receives no state appropriation but is supported almost entirely by contributions of the friends of girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Borchers and Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hoessli made a two-day canoe trip down the AuSable over the week end and report a fine trip. The occasion was also in celebration of the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hoessli.

Kenneth Hoessli is home again after making a week's trip through the Upper Peninsula, Wisconsin, Illinois, and Indiana. He was in the company of Dan Woods, of Gladwin, and the fellows made the trip entirely by motorcycle. They arrived home Friday evening and report a fine trip.

The ladies of the Friday Club were very nicely entertained this week at the home of Mrs. Edwin Chalker. Games were enjoyed during the afternoon, prizes of which were presented to Mrs. William Williams, Mrs. Sherman Neal, Mrs. Floyd Taylor, and Mrs. James Sherman. The ladies of the committee served a nice lunch.

Chester Burke, a former school teacher of Frederic, has now been promoted to Junior Engineer, of the large lake steamer Wm. Edenborn of the Pittsburgh Steamship Co., who operate the largest fleet of vessels on the Great Lakes. Mr. Burke being a former school teacher, is teaching while off watch, the men under him the technicalities of marine engineering.

Observing the Golden Jubilee of St. Mary's church, the Altar society will serve a chicken dinner next Sunday from 12 until 3 o'clock, in the church basement.

Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Vallad attended a reunion of the Buck family at Houghton Lake Saturday. According to word received since, the affair was very well attended. Following the reunion, Mr. and Mrs. Vallad left on a month's vacation at Flint, Owosso, and other cities. They will also attend a camp meeting at Owosso during their trip.

Mrs. Robert Reagan, Matt Bidvia, and Mrs. E. J. Olson, were in West Branch, Saturday, taking the E.R.A. Civil Service examination given there that day.

American Legion Drum & Bugle corps will be out in full uniform next Monday night parading for the Donkey ball game. The trousters are black with red stripes on each side, worn with white shirts and the coats are bright red with white belts, and white caps complete the uniform. The corps realized a neat sum from the carnival last week that was applied on the purchase of the coats.

H. C. McKinley of Gaylord, is in Mercy hospital suffering with infection in one hand. An accidental knife wound in his left thumb was the cause of his trouble. He entered the hospital Saturday and is getting along very well and says he expects to be able to return to Gaylord last of the week. In spite of his trouble and his 85 years, Mac is cheerful as ever and says he will be back setting type before long, even tho a section of bone was removed from his left thumb a couple of weeks ago. Mr. McKinley is a remarkable person and a fine citizen and we wish for him a speedy recovery.

St. Mary's Altar society will serve another of their popular chicken dinners next Sunday in the church basement from 12 until 3:00 o'clock. Price 50c. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Millikin (Virginia Skingley) were guests of honor at a delightful bridal shower given at the Hay Loft Monday evening. Two wedding cakes graced the lunch table and the young couple were showered with many gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Millikin now reside at Alba.

Alfred Bebb and family returned Tuesday to Bay City after being encamped at Lake Margrethe Sunday, a number of their friends gathered at their camp for a picnic, and there were 21 in all. Out-of-town guests were the Evert Erksuss family and Mr. and Mrs. George Brado, of Rogers City.

Once more we are announcing that contribution of political articles free in this paper MUST be in this office not later than noon Tuesdays. And such articles may only be submitted thru the county chairmen. This is for the protection of both parties and an assurance to us that they are bonafide.

The National Log Construction Co. just booked an order for material for a $4,000 home to be built in Mason City, Iowa. This is to be a duplicate of the log home shown in the May edition of the American Builder. Manager R. A. Wright says that each year their product receives more and more popular favor because of its construction possibilities, its beauty, durability and its low cost.

Circuses and Carnivals are exciting and glamorous for most of us but doubly so to Grayling's young people. Carnival life presented such an engaging future that Grant Giffin, 15-year-old grandson of R. W. Giffin, joined the Happyland Carnival, leaving with them Sunday, for Mt. Pleasant. After covering nine more cities, the carnival will close for the winter. On leaving Grant said, "Never mind, Grandpa, I'll just try it a month and if I don't like it I'll come home." He is assisting in the running of the chairplane.

Golf Club Notes...

MILNES-ST. JOHNS WIN GOLF MATCH

In the "best ball match" between Roy O. Milnes and Bill St. Johns against Charles Nix, Texas state amateur champion and Bill Miller, pro at West Branch, resulted in victory for the Grayling players. The match was played Wednesday afternoon at the Grayling club course. The low score on hole won a point.

At the end of the 18 holes Grayling players were leading by two points. Milnes turned in a score of 73 and St. Johns had 78; Nix turned in a score of 75 and his partner, Miller, had 77.

In the forenoon Miller broke the course nine-hole record with 32. He had five birdies and four pars.

Wednesday was guest day at the club house. Twenty Grayling ladies were here as well as many other guests. In the golf tournament with Grayling the Grayling club won by 21½ to 2 points. Miss Peg Murray held the high score for Grayling and Mrs. E. B. Schwaderer held the high score for Grayling.

There were seven tables of contract in play in the afternoon. Mrs. Gingham of Gaylord and Mrs. Ben Kraus of Elkhorn, Wis., held the high scores.

Bill St. Johns, our Pro, had a birthday Wednesday and several of his friends made the day happy for him by presenting him with gifts. Bill opened the gifts before quite a bunch and the poetry accompanying the gift, as well as the gift, brought out bursts of laughter and applause. "Many happy returns," Bill.

Next Wednesday the Ladies Auxiliary will have a pot luck luncheon which no doubt will be the last for this season.

Bilitzke's Ability Proven Many Times

In choosing any person for a public office, especially one that carries with it one of great trust and responsibility, such as that of a circuit judge, it is but natural we desire to know something of the ability of the men seeking our support.

Not only as a private attorney in Gaylord, but as prosecuting attorney, Mr. Bilitzke made such a fine record that he was singled out as a man capable to represent our state in matters of importance, and appointed as assistant attorney general, serving under three separate attorneys general.

He took over his new work, and with the same thoroughness shown while practicing in Gaylord, quickly became recognized as one of the best assistants the attorney general's department ever had, and was assigned to some of the most important cases in which the state was ever involved.

Among the cases assigned to him, and which he brought to a successful conclusion, were three in which he appeared before the United States Supreme Court, two of which had been in the courts for many years.

Through Mr. Bilitzke's work, Michigan collected $200,000 corporation tax from the Federal District Court at Grand Rapids, after the Circuit Court of Appeals at Cincinnati had held against the state. In this case it was necessary for him to be admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court, a privilege few attorneys enjoy. Again Mr. Bilitzke appeared before the United States Supreme Court in the Michigan-Wisconsin boundary dispute, which had been in the courts for many years. Through his efforts, Michigan gained for all time fishing rights in certain waters in Green Bay, which now returns $10,000 annually in license fees to the state.

Of particular interest to people of the north was Mr. Bilitzke's work in connection with the widely publicized Ne-Bo-Shone case in which the owner attempted to close a navigable stretch of water to public use. After going through the circuit courts and losing, the owner appealed to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals on the grounds that it was an Ohio Corporation, thus not subject to Michigan law. Mr. Bilitzke appeared for the state, and was given a verdict favoring the Michigan law.

This action, due largely to Mr. Bilitzke's work, closed for all time the debatable subject of water rights, thus assuring the people of the state a right to use any waters that are established as navigable.
